My parents are my best friends. I want them all day long but I cannot bring them to school. I want them to be my students but my dad will never get smiley. I want to play with them. I want them to be Thanos and me as the Ironman. I want to dance and run on the field but they cannot run like me. Lastly, when I go to bed, I want my mother to kiss me and love me.

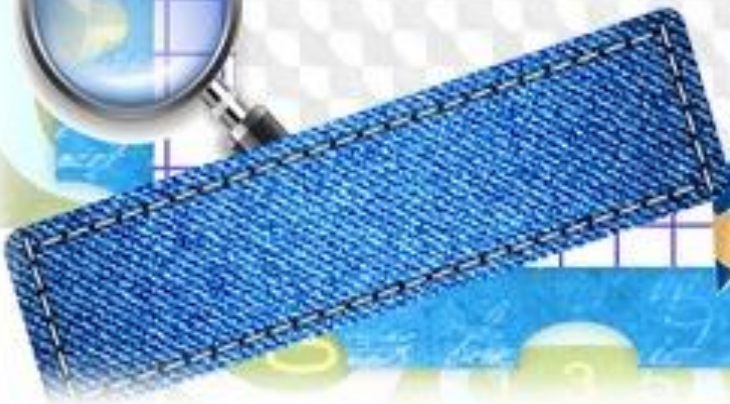

Organized by Parents' Circle, a Bangalore based magazine. Among the 33 entries which were published, two were from our school - one was a drawing by our K.6 student and one was an article written by a Class I student.
